N O T E - Some of these records are very hard to read and many are incomplete. We have copied them as they appear to us. Sometimes the clerk just spelled the name like he thought it should be. So look for all possible spellings. A few of the towns and places no longer exist, and many of them are on the map even though they are not listed in the index. A large county map would list a lot of these small places. A lot of the towns and places change their names, maybe two or three times before they finally settle on a name. Sometimes one record will say he or she is single and another record will say widow or widower.

+++++

This is the end of the deaths from the earliest through 1905. They are copied as they appear to us. Many times an a, o, or n looked like a u.

Many of the certificates gave Chico or Oroville as the place of burial. Most of the time it meant the large cemetery in Chico or Oroville. During this period of time Oroville also had the Catholic, Jewish and the Chinese Cemeteries. Chico had the Indian and Old Patrick Cemeteries. All are in existence today.

The Live Oak Cemetery is in Live Oak, Sutter Co. (between Gridley and Yuba City, Sutter Co. near the Butte Co. line).

We have not located the Mt. Olive or Citizens Cemeteries yet but believe they are located around Oroville. The Citizens Cemetery was referred to as the public burial grounds on the paper from the Judge giving permission to move 56 bodies from the Mt. Olive Cemetery to the Citizens Cemetery.

This is a return of death and was listed along with several others in 1893. I believe this is the same person as the one listed at bottom of page 123. If she is bur. in the Cherokee Cem. it is an unmarked grave. There are no Rapp's listed. There are a lot of mistakes in the records so this could be one of them. Chico & vicinity could include Cherokee. Miss Emma Rapp (page 123) and Miss Lillie Rapp (below) were both reg. in June 1905. Emma and Lillie could be sisters as there is ten years difference in birth dates.

N O T E - I believe we have located the Citizens Cemetery. Thomas Hunt, 173 A Cro View Dr., Oroville, Ca. has found 3 names who were listed as buried in this cem. in a section of the Oroville Cem. It will require a little more checking. Thomas is a researcher and I want to thank him for the time he has spent searching.

Some of these death records are very hard to read and many are incomplete. We have copied them as they appear to us. Sometimes the clerk just spelled the name like he thought it should be. So look for all possible spellings. A few of the towns & places no longer exist, and many of them are on the map even though they are not listed in the index. A (40" x 45") James McGann Map of Butte Co., Ca. 1877 can be ordered from Photo-Tech Inc., 122 Broadway, Chico, Ca. 95926 (white on blue). The cost of this map is $4.26 (folded) or $5.31 (in a tube) this includes tax and postage. It lists the names of the property owners (on the place where their property was) and a lot of the early towns. If you plan on using this map very much I would suggest getting the tube.

CORRECTION - Deveny/Devony, Owen or Oliver P. on page 43 was very hard to read. Larry Richardson tells me this name should be Deveney, Omer Pascal.

NOTE - Remember that in the early days the clerks wrote the person's name like it sounded to them and many of them had poor penmanship. A letter written like a "u" could be an a, o, n, or u. They forget to cross their t's so therefore it looks like an l. We copy them as they appear to us. On some of the records it says that the person is single, but on another record (sometimes on that very same record) for the same person it will say they are a widow or widower. Once in a while there will be two records with different death dates for the same person. Also you will find the name spelled one way on a record and another way on another record. Many times when the death was recorded in the index book they recorded the registered date instead of the death date, which would be from 1 to 2 and sometimes 3 days later than the actual death date.

These records were copied by Lorraine Habb and Juanita Merton from the death certificates, burial permits, and removal slips through 1905 that are filed chronological in small packets at the courthouse in Oroville, Ca. They are all put together to make one complete record. For a copy of the Butte Co. records listed here send $2.00 per copy to: Butte County Courthouse, Recorders Office, P. O. Box 70, Oroville, Ca. 95965.
