Wills. 1968

Alvin Mills has been a fine for the past several years and entered the hospital in 1968 after a severe heart ailment. Less than three weeks ago he rode his famous stallion "April Rambler" in an exhibition at the F. I. A. baugh Cantaloupe Roundup. He was 74.

He was born in a house at California Avenue and G Street where Freeway 99 now runs. A business until 1956.

He "retired" in that year and bought his first walking horse, April Rambler. In the past 12 years the horse has sired "half the Tennessee walking horses in the valley." Wills won more than 500 trophies and ribbons with the horses he bred and "green broke" on the ranch.

Across Country

Wills' horses have been sold all over the country and have won countless trophies, Mrs. Wills said yesterday. One won a national championship in Philadelphia last year. She said she will sell the remaining three horses now on the ranch "I don't know what I'm going to do with them. Mr. Wills loved that stallion and he left it to Mr. Wills. It's going to be sold and give him a good home."

In addition to his widow, Wills is survived by three sons: LeRoy H. and Noval C. Wills both of Fresno, and Robert A. Wills of Tulare; one daughter, Mrs. Helen Smith of Fresno; two brothers, Henry H. and Ted C. Wills both of Fresno; three sisters, Mrs. Katherine Adams of LaVerne, and Mrs. Molly Smith and Mrs. Pauline Nelson, both of Fresno; 12 grandchildren and three great-great grandchildren. Wills was a member of the Lutheran faith.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday in the LaVerne Chapel with interment to follow in Belmont Memorial cemetery.
