1974

Funeral services are scheduled for Friday at 2 p.m. at the Bragg and Sons Chapel, 538 S. Madera Ave., Kerman, for Sue Greathouse, 73, who died Wednesday at a Turlock hospital.

Born in Russia, she was the only child of German immigrant parents with whom she came to the Fresno-Kerman area in 1907. She had lived all her life with the exception of a few years, at Floyd Ave. ranch until entering the hospital on Dec. 21, 1973. She was a frequent visitor at the Otis Wells home near Hilmar.

She was married to the late William Greathouse. They had no children. Together they ministered to migrant farm workers and their families for 72 years. During these years they conducted Sunday Schools, worship services and ministered in many ways at two chapels in the Five Points area. At her death she was a member of the Bethany Lutheran Church near Kerman.

She is survived by many friends among them the Wells family who request in lieu of flowers remembrances be sent to Hefter Project International, P.O. Box 1332, Modesto, for "Living Memorials" in her honor.

Friends may call at the funeral chapel until just prior to the services. Burial will be in the Mountain View Cemetery in Fresno.

Fresnan Takes His Own Life

Timothy Wayne Jacobie, 21, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Jacobie of 5032 E. Madison Ave., shot and killed himself Wednesday afternoon, the Fresno County Coroner's Office reported.

Investigators said the body was found by his father shortly after 3:30 p.m. in a garage at the family's home. He had been shot once in the head with a .30-30-caliber rifle.

According to investigators the youth, who was a student at Fresno City College, had been despondent over ill health and financial problems.

The body was taken to Yost & Webb Funeral Home.

Mrs. Carle, Pioneer, Dies At 105

Services for Mrs. Greta M. Carle, 105, of Fresno, a member of a pioneer San Joaquin Valley family, will be held Saturday at 1:30 p.m. in the Palm Funeral Chapel. Mrs. Carle died Thursday.

Cremation will be private.

She was a native of Damascus, a defunct mining town near Placerville where her parents worked the old Mountain Gate Mine. When the mine petered out, the family moved to Auburn where her father served as a deputy sheriff and county recorder. Later the family moved to Milpitas where she met her husband, Charles J. Carle.

After the wedding in 1897, the couple moved to Lindsay to help develop the citrus and olive center in Tulare County.

Her husband died in a train-automobile accident in 1925 and she moved to San Francisco. She later moved to Los Angeles before coming to Fresno in 1960.

Her husband was one of the original promoters of the Central Valleys Project, which now brings water to the valley from Northern California. Her son, Jackson, also of Fresno, helped bring the project to reality as executive secretary to Rep. B. F. Sis.

The couple had one other son, William Ashley Carle, who died in 1929.

While in Lindsay, Mrs. Carle helped organize several women's groups.

Frances Nilmeier, Turkey Rancher, Dies At 73

Funeral services for Frances S. Nilmeier, 73, a Kerman resident 67 years, will be held Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. at the Stephens and Bean Chapel.

Mrs. Nilmeier died Saturday following a lengthy illness.

Mrs. Nilmeier and her late husband, G.D. "Gus" Nilmeier, operated a turkey ranch in Kerman. They opened the business in 1919 and she continued it upon her husband's death in 1963. The business is now operated by a son, Robert.

What began as a small additional income project for Mrs. Nilmeier's Christmas budget grew to the valley's largest independent turkey growing business. From her original 100 birds, the ranch output grew to include the raising of upwards of 50,000 turkeys a year.

The ranch was one of the first to include a complete processing plant and her husband was one of the first to experiment with artificial breeding.
