Woman shot by husband dies

A 78-year-old Fresno woman, who police say was shot by her husband early Saturday morning in her home, has died. 26 Sept 1987

A spokesman for the Fresno County Coroner's office said Minnie Bier died at 8:52 p.m. Saturday at Valley Medical Center after undergoing surgery. Her husband, 82-year-old Fred R. "Dick" Bier, died moments after the shooting after reportedly turning the .38 caliber revolver on himself.

Investigators said Fred Bier apparently was despondent over his wife's poor health. Police and friends of the couple, who lived alone in a quiet northwest Fresno neighborhood, said Minnie Bier suffered from Alzheimer's disease and could no longer function independently.
