SCHWABENLAND. Lola Schwabenland, owner of Fig Garden Guest home dies. Mrs. Lola Schwabenland who 25 years ago began "Lola's Guest Home," what is recognized as one of the more distinguished homes for the elderly, died Sunday, May 12, 1991, in her home.

Lola started her guest home in 1965 on Austin Way in Fresno. Eight years later the business was relocated to Palm and Gettysburg in the Fig Garden area. She is best remembered for being an outstanding business woman and for the wonderful care she gave to the elderly. Her many years of experience and hard work earned her the honor of being one of the leaders in her field.

Lola was a woman of many talents and strengths. Aside from her rest home business, Lola was an accomplished milliner. She designed and made many hats and bridal veils for women in the Fresno area and around the world.

Lola is survived by her two daughters, Kathleen Stevenson and Bonnie Roy; four grandchildren, Diane Roy, Cindy Arnold, Sheila Roy and Shawn Stevenson; and one great grandchild, Kaylee Marie.

Lola's Guest Home will continue under the operation of her two daughters. Her children will greatly miss her.
