Mr. Metzler was born January 20, 1900 in Fresno. His family came from Straub in the Volga River area, escaped Czarist Russia in 1887 by crossing many mountains into Turkey and finally traveling to Fresno. Fresno was chosen because that was where "the railroad ended". Augie met and married his wife, Elsie, in Fresno. They settled in Parlier as raisin farmers until retiring to Cayucos in 1947. They built their own home in Cayucos and lived there until the death of Elsie in January, 1995.

Augie was an expert rock collector, winning many awards for his unique and rare rocks. He cut and polished most of his collection and was an avid stone facer. He loved fishing and growl-

1, 1939, in San Francisco. As a team, they entered into many business ventures. The first was a mom and pop grocery store that they owned from 1938 to 1946. After selling the store, Joe and Elma entered the theater business. It was Elma's love for movies and Joe's love for Elma that directed them into this business adventure.

In 1950 they moved to Kerman and purchased the California Theater. At that time, Joe was also involved in real estate and soon phased out of the movie business. Elma always supported Joe and when they planned subdivisions and built homes in Kerman, Elma designed and decorated them.

She became involved in the community through many civic organizations. She was a member of the General Federated Women's Club and served as its president, auditor and executive board trustee. She was president, secretary and treasurer of the Gaveleers; president of the Daughters of Utah Pioneers and president, treasurer and chair of the order of Eastern Star. Because of her community service, she was the first woman designated as a Paul Harris Fellow by the Kerman Rotary Club. She is listed in Who's Who in California.

Some of her achievements include awards for; Mother of the year; crime prevention and safety, needlepoint; and home beautification.

As a Relief Society President in the Kerman Ward of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, she saw to the spiritual, physical and emotional needs of the women. She provided many hours of compassionate service and affected the lives of many people.

Her interests include the family, church service, genealogy, photography, interior design, needlepoint, and world travel.

A biography was written on her life entitled, The Boyds in Action and is available in the Fresno County Library, Kerman Branch and each of the school libraries in the Kerman Unified School District.

She is survived by her husband, Joseph Hais Boyd, her children, Joseph D. Boyd, and Kenneth R. Boyd, both realtors; Louise E. Auterlieb teacher; and Martha E. March, and her brothers and sister; Delbert Dennis; Eldred Dennis; Farrell Dennis; and Maudie Taylor. She is also survived by sixteen grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Visitation will be at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 15500 West Kearney Blvd., Kerman, on Tuesday, March 14, 1995, from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. Services will be held at the same location on Wednesday March 15, 1995, at 10 a.m. Interment will be at the Fresno Memorial Gardens.

DIEBERT, NADINE MARIE. A loving dedicated wife, mother, mother-in-law and grandparent, passed away on Saturday, May 20, 1995, at the age of 62. Born in Hollywood on December 4, 1933, her family moved to Fresno in 1935. Nadine was preceded in death by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Credell and a brother, Dr. Edward Credell of Turlock.

A warm, caring, generous and beautiful lady with a wonderful sense of humor who devoted her life to her family. Her remarkable and infinite faith and trust in God will forever be a source of strength and inspiration for those she left behind. Even though Nadine's illness was a lengthy one she never lost her love for God, family and friends. Nadine never questioned the Lord and accepted her illness without complaint or bitterness. She truly was a child of God bringing joy and happiness to her family and those around her. Nadine was a very fine lady who will be truly missed.

Her favorite poem: Do not stand by my grave and weep. I am not there. I do
