Editor's Message

The school year of 1961-62 is now behind us. Soon we shall leave the hallowed halls of Eureka High School, taking with us only the fond memories of our three glorious years together.

The memory of our work on the Sequoia will be one of the highlights for us. Putting the book together has been fun, but it has taken work, time, cooperation, tolerance, patience, and diplomacy. Even though we have had our ups and downs, it has been a wonderful experience and personal challenge.

We wish to express our deepest appreciation to everyone for making our yearbook become a reality.

Forever,

Sharon Albert

Memories, some pleasant, some serious, and some not so pleasant will come to you as you turn these pages. In most cases, the memories will be pleasant, for a good education is the foundation for a good life. You will remember those teachers and those classes where you were challenged to exercise your intellect.

As the years roll by you will remember friends and activities which were pleasant and worthwhile. I hope that your yesterdays were spent in such a way that your tomorrows will be rich and meaningful.

Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Frank Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Moore are cutting the cake at the reception given them by the girls of the home economics classes.

An example of one of the industrious meetings of the faculty of Eureka High.

Our dolls—Esther McGuire, Lois Campbell, Freda Goodwin, and Joanne Clason, were the faculty cheerleaders at the Faculty-Student Body Benefit game.

Look at him go! Mr. Goetz is dunking the ball in the basket to lead the faculty to a grand victory, 40-38.

And the score goes up another notch!

Seniors Reign Victorious

The mighty seniors do it again—they conquered the hall and the Junior-Senior Game. The score of the game, held on November 17 and sponsored by the Senior Class, was 19, Seniors, to 13, Juniors.

Shipwreck Dance

"Rub-A-Dub-Dub, King and Queen in a tub." Juniors Pam Moon and Lee Hibler were crowned Mr. and Miss Shipwreck at the annual Shipwreck Dance held December 1, 1961, and sponsored by the Junior Class.

Entertainment was provided by the Hi Fi's amidst a background of coats strewn "wrecklessly" around the floor. They are Bob Shields, Gary Standly, James Wilson, Les Throssel and Lance Lawry.

Senior Ball - 1962

Mr. and Miss Senior — Sharon Albert and Mike Redman

The Senior Ball was held in the Colonnade Room at the Eureka Inn, May 26, 1962.

Senior Picnic

The mighty Seniors prepare to depart for their Senior Picnic on May 29, 1962.

The day starts off with rigorous athletic activities.

Some "enthusiastic" girls prefer to watch.

After a day's play it's time for chow.

The afternoon was spent in a good old-fashioned song fest.

Senior All-Night Party

Mr. Robert Richmond for many years has served as faculty sponsor of the All-Night Party.

The Seniors who made arrangements for the All-Night Party were: Lynn Giuntini, Sharon Albert, Sandy Albert, Vincent Lucido, Curt Cooper, A. J. Mayo, and Ron Johnson.

When the band entertains, everyone sits and listens.

Mass confusion reigns as the party swings into high gear.

There were "Twisters" and "Watchers" in the 6-hour long party.

Nick Johnson, Randy Teach, Janice Smith, and Rob Rosaia, seem overwhelmed by the buffet table.

Through Thick and Thin

Leading us to victory are cheerleaders Kit Corbin, Linda Edwards, Rob Rosaia and Ava Sandberg.

Keeping spirit high are song queens Pam Moon, Donna Anderson, Tahni Myers and Cheryl Dearing.

They Help Us Win!

Kit, Ava, Linda and Rob "Whoop It Up" with their new CUTOFF yell, during Basketball season.

Eureka - Arcata Game Highlights

Rich Steinberg dives over for a touchdown in the first Arcata game played in Albee Stadium. Eureka 25—Arcata 7.

Steinberg and Ball block for Burman in a right-end sweep in the second Arcata game slogged out in Redwood Bowl. Eureka 0—Arcata 13.

*This Is How It's Done,
Fellas!*

George Muzio, Eureka's All-Star full-back, shows the drive that enabled him, in fair weather or foul, to set a new Humboldt-Del Norte conference rushing record of 1,187 yards. As far as George was concerned, the more tacklers the more company he had to take along with him on those long yards to the goal line.

Carolyn Clague and Judie Williams say, "L-o-o-k-i-e-e!" They know that traveling by Greyhound Bus is the best assurance of comfort.

Who sells more cokes to EHS students than anyone else? Students' Inn, of course. Karen Gregersen and Dennis Remick are shown enjoying cokes and Al's hospitality the only time Students' Inn isn't the busiest place on campus—during class!

A.J. Mayo and Curt Cooper are demonstrating the Minute Man Service always given at Carl Compton's Union Station at 4th and Eye Streets in Eureka.

MASTERS OF EXPRESSION

JEROME'S

618 F Street H12-4467

Why do they shop at Duck's? Karen Satre and Joanne McKnight point to the symbol of typical friendly service you receive at Duck's Grocery, 2297 Harrison Avenue in Eureka.

Kristin Borgeson has her eye on that luscious cake Stan Dodge is holding. But Stan is only offering her a doughnut. Kristin isn't worried because she knows that whatever she buys at Modern Cake Shop is the best!

It looks like Sue Landon is helping herself to the lovely glasses at Brown's Hardware, 1648 Myrtle Avenue. Darlene Tuttle enviously looks on, wishing she could too.

Where is the best place to buy your plants and garden supplies? Just ask farmers Lee Hoskins and Harry Hemsley—Sherwood Forest Nursery located at 2623 Harris Street is their answer every time.

This sign, familiar to many E.H.S. students, is mounted atop Eureka's first complete Dairy Drive-In, halfway between 5th and Harrison Streets. Drive in for your milk, ice cream, butter, fruit punch, or other Farm Fresh Products.

Why do Julia Zeck and John Schrader seem so happy? They've just opened new accounts at Humboldt Federal Savings and Loan Association, the home of Mr. Thrift, where they give  $4\frac{1}{2}\%$ . Humboldt Federal Savings at 6th and G Street.

Ava Sandberg and Donna Anderson proudly model their new outfits from White House Fashions. Besides the newest clothes, White House gives those money-saving S&H Green Stamps. White House is conveniently located at 7th and E Streets in Eureka.

Enviously surveying the new Lenox line of china with Mr. Ed Cox at Walsh's are George Muzio and Mike Redman. They know this would be just the gift for their mothers next Mothers' Day.

Richard Head and Mike Tuxon have found the perfect card for any of their good buddies at Bert's Stationery in downtown Eureka. Stop in for your gift for that special occasion at Bert's, 423 F Street.

Glenda Courts has finally found a car that she can stretch out in. Where? At McCrea Motors, of course. McCrea Motors has the car to fit everyone's taste. Try them yourself.

Another car comes from Eureka Tallow Company after delivering a load of hides. This road is especially busy during the season when the hunters and trappers are bringing in their pelts to sell.

It seems like the California Woolen Mills is always having a satisfied customer walk out its door, loaded down with woolens for all needs.

This sign is a familiar landmark in Eureka. Pete's Super Market carries a complete line of groceries, and besides that, Pete's is open daily until 12 midnight.

"Just the place to find the perfect Christmas gift," said Marily Allen. But she could surely add that you can find flowers or gifts at Dolson Florist for any occasion. Dolson's is located handily in Henderson Center.

Everybody fights over the bargains at McGaraghan's and Paula Will and Bob Rosaia are no exception. Besides bargains, McGaraghan's has just what everyone wants. You'll find them at 2834 F Street in Henderson Center.

Vic Brewer has found the nicest place in Jones' to lean on—the candy counter. He knows that Jones' has the biggest variety of candy in town—and also the biggest variety of almost everything. That's Jones' Variety Store in Henderson Center.

Carolyn Malde, looking sweeter than ever, illustrates the skill and photographic ability of the professional photographers at Anderson's Studios in Henderson Center.

"Grab all ya can," Mike Walsh seems to be telling Linda Edwards about Big Loaf Bread. With their Big Loaf Chef's hats they are really getting anxious for some of that delicious bread and pastry. Why not join them?

Gayle Hunter and Jerry Thomas enjoy a big bowl of clam chowder at Broadway Seafoods. Broadway Seafoods is a terrific dining spot for your whole family, and it's easy to get to because it's right at Broadway and 7th Streets.

Fred Maltagliatti takes a load of clothes into Drive-In Cleaners. Drive-In Cleaners is one of the most popular dry cleaning places in town because it is so convenient to drive in and deposit your clothes.

William Williams, himself has helped Lynn Giuntini pick out a pattern for the dishes for her hope chest. Besides dishes, Lynn can find watches, clocks, rings and jewelry at 10 Window Williams at the corner of 3rd & E Streets.

Gary Ballew scrutinizes the label but he knows the shirt is best because it's from Rasmussen's Men's Wear in Henderson Center, where all the clothes are tops.

Bev Brown gets a friendly smile from Audre Failers along with her cosmetics from Buxton's. Buxton's Drugs are found at two locations, 2830 F and in Myrtle Towne. Don't forget at Buxton's, you get S&H Green Stamps and free delivery service

Rich Aronson and Rich Keller have found a whole box of things that suit them from Finnegan and Nason Auto Supply, Henderson & F Street. The only thing you forgot, boys, is the bill of sale!

"This will go down in history," says Gail Lozensky as she signs her name on Sharon Albert's sweatshirt in Daly Brothers. Gail herself wears a printed sweatshirt, but we aren't surprised because Daly's sells practically everything.

"This is just what I want", says Kathy Peters, with a sly grin on her face, to Danny Houpt. But then, Danny knows that everyone finds just what he wants at S&K Jewelers at 304 F Street in downtown Eureka.

"And this is only one week's cleaning", smiles song-leader Cheryl Dearing. Cheryl knows that she gets expert cleaning from New Method Cleaners at 310 5th Street in Eureka.

Lloyd Scott sports a big grin as he goes up to the cashier's stand with his shopping cart filled with Challenge Dairy Products. Lloyd knows that Challenge Dairies have the best milk products on the market.

Our subject couldn't even wait for the picture. He's already inside grabbing up some of those fantastic bargains that Country Club Market is famous for. If you really want to save money try it yourself.

Expert bowling form is executed by Marilyn Allen at Harbor Lane's Free Senior Bowl, enjoyed by many. Harbor Lanes, on Broadway, is a favorite spot with Eureka High's bowlers all year round.

Mary Quintrell and Rita Neilsen serve as living models for Kent's. Kent's is located in Eureka at 6th and F Streets.

Realsmith Realty, 2902 E Street, is the home of Marvin L. Smith, "the man who comes running" when you have real estate problems.

Besides school supplies, Dorothy Anderson seems to think Kit Corbin is trying to sell her a bill of goods, and with a grin like that on his face he probably is. But she has to admit the school supplies at Lincoln's are all on the level, even if Kit isn't.

Danielson's "Eureka's finest store for men" is located at 4th and F Streets. Danielson's is the stopping place for many of EHS'ers including Jim Sundfors and Norm Pederson.

"And here goes another strike." Sue Gustafson knows that Eureka Bowl is the best place to get them because it's the place all the EHS students meet to bowl and compare their scores. Eureka Bowl at 712 - 4th Street.

Ted West is happy because he found the best buy in town on this beautiful new Pontiac at Bernie Anderson's. Bernie Anderson is your Pontiac-Buick dealer in Eureka at 4th & D Streets.

Julie Hegy and Jeanie Larson seemed to be very pleased with themselves because they just bought a new piano and organ from Garrison's Music. Garrison's is found at 331 F Street.

"You can find just what you're looking for at Gallenkamps," is the theme of this picture. Rene Falleri and John Fleming found the shoes they'd always had their hearts set on at Gallenkamps' in downtown Eureka.

"Just the one I want," Tahni Myers smilingly states. Bistrins, we can tell by the long row of dresses, has something for everyone.

The trantic four, Jerry Zavalney, Walt Bratten, Jerry Thomas, and Lee Hoskins, relax on one of the beds at White House Furniture, the home of fine furniture in Eureka.

With Karen Oester behind the wheel, it's no wonder Loheide's Cleaners has such fast delivery; but Loheide's also has a fast and safe cleaning process for your clothes.

Fred Maltagliatti and Harless McKinley have really come up in the world, and they want you to remember that DeBon Motors is the place where they did it.

"We just adore the salami at Cannam's," drool Barb Sloma and Connie Kirkby. Cannam's also has a large selection for all your grocery needs, and in four locations, too.

Jim Sundfors, how can you co-pilot that caterpillar if you don't tell driver Dick McGovern that that cat is about to have a rough fight with Tom McGuire? But don't worry, Brizard Matthews has the best equipment there is.

Joe Wrigley looks up from his duties at Country Club Chevron very seldom. In fact, because of his many duties, Country Club Chevron is the place to go for that extra special service.

Kathy Grigorieff is pointing at you. Do you need an appointment at Edie's Beauty Salon? Remember they give you "hair styling that compliments." For complete personalized service try Edie's in Henderson Center.

Randy Teach makes like a big executive amongst the supplies to be found at Eureka Office Supply at 311 E Street. When you want office supplies don't forget Eureka Office Supply.

"This is the place" says Diane Hartson and Alice Watson. And what more can we say? The sign in the window at 918-4th Street speaks for itself as far as Eureka Cleaners is concerned.

"Who's at the Fresh Freeze?" "Who isn't" would be a better question, because just about everybody is there just about all the time. Those delicious shakes, burgers, and fries can't keep EHS students away.

Eureka High's famed trumpeter, Noel Weidkamp, knows the best place in town for his music supplies is Nygard and Green's in Henderson Center. You can get everything for your musical instrument there too; and, if you don't have one, Nygard and Green will even supply that.

Judy Nevills and Larry Brannaman both show some of the wholesome food found at Bonomini's Grocery. Bonomini's has everything imaginable in foodstuffs.

Tim Harper broadly grins as he tries out a brand new Thunderbird from Harvey M. Harper Company. Harper's also has the best deals possible on these bright new cars. Try Harper's for your new Ford.

"No, Debby, don't smash those beautiful lamps, appliances, chairs, and everything else that Harris Hardware has in abundance." Debby Iverson has found a croquet mallet to do her smashing with, showing us that supplies for all games are also available at Harris Hardware on Harris Lane.

"They all look so good, I just don't know which one to choose." Judy Biden hungrily looks over the selection of Mi Mama's delicious pastry. Mi Mama's is easy to find in Harris Lane.

If Joe Wallund looks pleased, it's only because he knows that he looks his best with his new jacket from Cliff's Men's Wear. Cliff's has the nicest looking wear for all occasions and they are conveniently located on F Street between 3rd and 4th.

Tom McGuire, you'll never get all the groceries you want from Sander's in that little car. Sander's has so many good things you'll need at least a truck!

We couldn't get close to Ogden's to take a picture, because we know that we'd be tempted to go in and buy something. Ogden's has so many things for your car that you just can't resist them.

Jim Pope takes an accustomed position for him, as he takes it easy, his usual practice, on some of the best means of relaxation there are—at Home Furniture on the corner of 3rd and F Streets.

Mr. Richard Nash and his son Jack check the fine campus shirts on sale at Arthur Johnsons Men's Shop, where all the boys from EHS buy.

Service like this can be gotten at only one place, and that's McLain's Shell Service, where Dick McGovern can always be seen working hard.

What is the Logger holding his hands out for? Why he's waiting for one of those Homelite Chain Saws from the Western Chain Saw Company. As the sign says "How about you?"

Rick Rankin just can't give Kathie Kelly enough of that good lettuce from Stanton's Market, but then what can you buy at Stanton's that you do get enough of?

Treva Perkins, Debby Iverson, and Dea Waters are aided by one of the helpful clerks in Hollander's Jewelry Store as they pick out patterns for their silver.

Neil Buller aims one of the newest rifles in Steelhead Louie's Sporting Goods Store. Louie, himself, looks on fully aware that after examining the rifle Neil will want to look at tackle, rods, reels, bowling, camping equipment, and all the other sporting goods.

How many people can you get in a telephone booth? Not as many as you can get in a Lark. Paoli Brothers, your Lark dealer can vouch for that, and this picture is only to show you how to start.

Maurice's Shoes is shown here during the only time it isn't busy—when it's closed. Maurice's has shoes of every style and every size. See for yourself.
