THE NAPA VALLEY GENEALOGICAL AND BIOGRAPHICAL SOCIETY

The Society was founded by Marian E. McGuire in July of 1974 as an offshoot of the Napa County Bicentennial Commission. There were 135 charter members by the first membership meeting in January 1975 and the Society has grown rapidly to its present status of a highly respected educational organization. Incorporation as a non-profit organization was accomplished in June of that same year.

In March 1975 the doors to our library were opened. Those using our facility found it housed in just one small room, with a few shelves of books. As our membership increased and we were financially able to purchase books (or they were donated or loaned), more space was needed, and we acquired the use of two additional rooms. Our holdings are now over 4000 volumes -- and still growing.

Instructional classes are offered in beginning genealogical research, as well as clinics for specialized help and regional study groups. Our meetings are of a very high caliber, with timely, interesting, informative topics, from which we all benefit. The Society's highly successful annual "Roots and Shoots" seminars were begun in 1978, bringing to the area the very finest genealogical teachers and lecturers.

Objectives of the Society

1. To promote interest in genealogical and related historical and biographical research.
2. To provide instruction in research techniques involving evidence, proof and documentation stressing accuracy and ethics.
3. To accumulate and preserve manuscripts, documents, records, family histories and other genealogical holdings through the establishment of a genealogical library.
4. To serve as a medium for sharing knowledge and educational and social activities.
5. To encourage compilation and publication of records, family histories and biographies.

Editor's Note

Congratulations and my sincere gratitude to those on the Quarterly staff for a job well done in the past two years. I really must single out Carol Carsner for her beautiful typing and for her help as my righthand man. Carol will not be able to continue with our publication due to pressing personal obligations. I will miss her help tremendously.

Thank you all who supported the Quarterly, in whatever way. Your contributions of material for inclusion, queries, suggestions, extraction or copying of records, etc. are what makes our publication. Please continue this support for bigger and better issues in the future.

President's Message

My term as your President is rapidly nearing an end. We have accomplished much in the last two years, not because of my efforts, but through the efforts of many of our members. Many thanks to all those fine people who have worked so hard to support and maintain the Society's many projects.

Our by-laws state that the objectives of the Society are: to promote interest in genealogy; to provide instruction in research techniques; to accumulate and preserve records, manuscripts, family histories, etc.; to serve as a medium for sharing genealogical information; and, to encourage compilation and publication of records, etc.

We accomplish these objectives by: supporting and maintaining our magnificent library; by publishing our quarterly; by publishing our monthly newsletter containing information on our meetings, seminars, fund raisers, new members, new books and similar current information; by holding our monthly general membership meetings with educational and interesting programs; and by holding seminars and classes for beginners.

To perform the above-named tasks, we need the help of as many members as possible. I sincerely hope that you will support your new Board of Directors and their various committees during the next two years in the accomplishment of these programs.

Thomas H. Wakeman

The Holbrook Research Institute, 57 Locust St., Oxford, MA 01540, has released 10 new microfiche publications for researchers of MA vital records to 1850. Filmed from the originals, these records have not been for sale before. You may request a brochure listing all towns and dates for which microfiche are available from the above address. - Roughly mid-1700's to late 1880's. (Sonoma County Gen. Soc. Volume 11 No. 3)

Agricultural Censuses were taken in 1850, 1860, 1870 and 1880 and list farm and ranch owners in each county in every state. They are on file at the National Archives and can be obtained through inter-library loan. Those of us who can not find our ancestors in the federal census but know they existed might try researching these. (Jackson Co. Gen. Soc. via St. Louis Gen. Soc. Nwsltr Aug 1984)

In 1866 the West Virginia Legislature struck 26,099 medals for distribution to Union soldiers who fought in West Virginia regiments. Approximately 5,200 medals remain in filing cabinets waiting to be claimed by heirs of the soldiers, many of who came from neighboring states to be mustered into West Virginia regiments. A medal will be awarded to an heir who can provide documentation establishing a line of descent from the Union army veteran. -- A list of all unclaimed medals is included in the current "West Virginia History", Volume 45, which is available for $8 from the Department of Culture and History, Cultural Center, Capitol Complex, Charleston, WV 25305. Further information can be obtained from the same address. Claims will be accepted until 12 April 1985. (National Genealogical Society Nwsltr Sept/Oct 1984)

Until 1786 the Episcopal Church was the state church of Virginia. All children, regardless of religious affiliation, were required to be baptised by Episcopal ministers. Date of their baptisms, together with their names, date of birth and names of parents were recorded in parish registers. The same type of record was made of all marriages and burials. These church records are preserved at the Virginia State Library at Richmond. Some of these records have been printed. Two books that might be helpful in locating the proper parish are: Robert Stewart's "Index to Printed Virginia Genealogie" and, E. G. Swem's "Virginia Historical Index". (Livermore-Amador Gen. Soc. A WOOD FAMILY STORY

Pioneer John E. Goodenow, on coming to Jackson County [IA], instead of bringing money with him, supplied himself with various articles of value to new-comers, such as tools, clothing, etc. These he had arrayed in one end of his cabin as a sort of store. Shortly after Mr. Goodenow's arrival, in 1838, Mr. T. Wood, of what is now South Fork Township, came up to the former's tradingpost to negotiate with him for a pair of breeches.

In that day, the settlers did not indulge much in luxuries. Wheat bread was almost unknown. The product of the corn-crackers was the staple food for the pioneers. Salt pork, brought over from Illinois, sold for 25 cents per pound, and the possession of fresh meat was a streak of good fortune quite rare indeed.

Mr. Wood had brought his rifle with him, as the settlers often did in their travels, and while he was discussing the proposed new unmentionables with Jackson County's early post-trader, a neighbor came in with the news that he had seen a young buck on what is now commonly known as the Sear's place. Goodenow said to Wood, "Tom, if you will bring me that deer, I'll give you the best pair of pants I've got." Wood snatched his rifle and started, not much expecting that he would secure the prize. To his joy, he found the buck quietly grazing where he had been seen an hour previous, and the first shot from his rifle made him a captive. Wood was not long in getting back to Goodenow's with his venison. John E. was as good as his word, and Wood carried home with him, that evening, as good a pair of pantaloons as Jackson County could boast.

From The History of Jackson County Iowa, pp. 423-424, published by Western Historical Company, Chicago, 1879.

Thomas Wood, a native of KY, emigrated from Warrick Co. IN to Coles Co. IL, and on July 4, 1836 settled in what became South Fork Twp., Jackson Co. IA, remaining on that land until his death in 1882. Submitted by Carol King Carsner

Newspaper Gleanings

A DISTINGUISHED WEDDING - The San Francisco Alta of this morning contains the following notice of the marriage of Leopoldine, daughter of our esteemed fellow-citizen, P. Van Bever, Esq.: The marriage of Leopoldine, daughter of P. Van Bever, Esq., and M. Gabriel Bonnafy, of the French Navy, took place last evening, at the Church of Notre Dame Des Victoires, on Bush street. The interior had been beautifully decorated with plants and flowers and a host of lighted candles. The church, at an early hour, was crowded, the majority being ladies. At half-past eight o'clock, the bride, leaning on the arm of her father, and the bridegroom escorting Madame Van Bever, followed by the bridesmaids and their escorts, entered the church, while the organ peeled forth Mendelssohn's beautiful wedding march. The principal bridesmaids and escorts were: Louise Maison, Blanche Soudry, L. Briegner, Ch. Carpy and Leon Maison, who, with the contracting parties, signed the church register. The party having taken their place in front of the altar, the following music was rendered under the direction of Mr. Jos. Roeckel, organist of the church: "O Salutaris," Rossini, duet, Miss Ellen Coursen and Herr Koppel; "Ave Guercia," Signorina Rottanzi; "Priere Stradella," Herr Koppel; violin solo, composed by Miss Ellen Coursen, and played by that lady; "Mon Dieu," Halevy, Signor Gariboldi. The ceremony was conducted in the French language, by the Rev. P. Robert, the pastor. At the conclusion the party left the church while the organ played the "Wedding March," from the opera "Les Huguenots." The bride was attired in white satin, with the usual long white veil and orange blossoms. The bridegroom wore the full uniform of a French naval officer. It may be remarked that he had travelled some ten thousand miles to carry off his fair bride. NAPA COUNTY REPORTER, July 25, 1878, page 3, column 5.

STEUBENVILLE HERALD-STAR Established 1806 A Brush-Moore Newspaper

Atlantic 2-5311
STEUBENVILLE, OHIO
July 17, 1958

Mrs. Charles W. Cowles,
563 No. Camino Alta
Vallejo, Calif.

Dear Mrs. Cowles:

The only information I can give you about the Moodey or Moody family (I find it spelled both ways) is the obituary of David Moodey taken from our files of May 9, 1861, and a brief skect [sic] of his son, R.S. Moody, from Joseph B. Doyle's 20th Century History of Steubenville and Jefferson County.

The obituary follows: Death of Oldest Citizen of Steubenville. Mr. David Moodey died at the residence of his son, R.S. Moodey, Esq., yesterday in the 74th year of his age. Mr. Moodey came to this city in the year 1797 with his parents who emigrated to Steubenville from Lancaster County, Pa. that year.

He was at the time but nine years of age, and resided here ever since, 63 years. At the time he came here there was but five houses in the city, most of which were log cabins and the greater portion of the ground upon which Steubenville is now built was an unbroken wilderness.

Mr. Moodey was in early life engaged in the Land Office under the venerable David Hoge, long since deceased--was subquently [sic] and for 30 years cashier of the old Farmers and Merchants Bank, the Jefferson Branch Bank and the Citizens Bank.

He was a very competent businessman and as a cashier, had but few if any superiors in the state. He was a most estimable citizen, clever, gentlemanly and courteous. He had not probably an enemy in the world, and dies not only beloved by his family, his immediate friends, but regretted by a large circle of acquaintances who will cherish his memory with kind recollections.

The funeral service of the deceased will be held at the First Presbyterian Church, Friday morning at 10 o'clock, the friends of the family respectfully invited to attend.

The sketch in Doyle's Book refers to the time around the eighteen thirties and forties. It follows:

Among the members of the bar during this period was Roderick S. Moody, conceded to be one of the most brilliant lights in his profession. Mr. Moody was a native of Steubenville, the son of David and Sarah (Sheldon) Moody. He was educated at Jefferson College, Pennsylvania, and entered the Farmers and Mechanics Bank as clerk. He studied medicine but preferring the law, entered the office of D.L. Collier, and was admitted to practice in September, 1841. The same year he married Miss Virginia Eoff of Wheeling. He was prosecuting attorney from 1846 to 1848, and was appointed clerk of courts but did not serve. He died Dec. 11, 1866.

I hope the above will be of some help to you. I believe I recall reading somewhere that R.S. Moody and Edwin M. Station had a dispute over a case in court which led to hot words and an exchange of blows in front of the Courthouse here.

I also believe that what is now La Belle View in Steubenville was formerly called Moody's hill.

If there is any way in which I can supply more information, please advise. If you have clues such as names and dates, especially dates, I would be glad to look them up in our files. Sincerely, Malcolm J. Brady.

ESTATE INVESTIGATION ~ Henrietta E. Shaffer Garrett

REPORT OF SECOND TRIP OF INVESTIGATION - Subject: The late Henrietta E. (Shaffer) Garrett's $17,000,000 Estate. General Information: Administration of Estate, Charles S. Starr and Frank G. Marcellus, Administrators; Biddle, Paul, Dawson, and Yocum, Attorneys for Administrators, 505 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Attorney representing the descendants of Valentine Shaffer and Catherine Stob Shaffer, I.G. Gordon Forster, 502 Liberty Trust Building, Broad and Arch Streets, Philadelphia, Pa.

The following matter is taken from copy of Certificate of Death which we secured from the Bureau of Vital Statistics, Philadelphia: PLACE: Philadelphia, Pa. FULL NAME: Henrietta E. Garrett, RESIDENCE: 404 South 9th Street, HUSBAND: Walter Garrett, AGE AT HER DEATH: 82, BIRTHPLACE: Pennsylvania, NAME OF FATHER: Christian Schaeffer, MAIDEN NAME OF MOTHER: Henrietta C. Kretchman, INFORMANT: C.S. Starr, 123 S. Broad St., Philadelphia, Pa. Filed November 17, 1930--E.P. Freeborn, Registrar.

MEDICAL--DATE OF DEATH: Nov. 16, 1930, 5:30 A.M. PHYSICIAN: J.A. Stegman, M.D., 1708 Green St., Philadelphia, Pa. PLACE OF BURIAL: Laurel Hill Cemetery. DATE OF BURIAL: Nov. 20, 1930. UNDERTAKER: R.R. Brughurst & Co., 1924 Arch Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

OUR VISIT TO LAUREL HILL CEMETERY - We visited Laurel Hill Cemetery on Friday, May 3, 1935, and found the burial plot of the Garretts. It is a small plot just large enough for the five of the family buried there, viz., Front Row: Walter Garrett and at his left, his wife, Henrietta E. Garrett; Back Row: John C. Schaffer (Henrietta E. Garrett's brother); to his left, Christopher Schaffer; to Christopher Schaffer's left, his wife, Henrietta C. Schaffer (the parents of John C. Schaffer and Henrietta E. Garrett).

The monuments to these graves are unpretentious but substantial, attracting one's attention because of their simplicity. They are void of frills or emoluments, all are alike and of the same size, and the wording on the monuments is brief and sensible, analogous to the lives of these unusual people. The record of this family of five is an inspiration to all. The writer is badly mistaken if there will not be many books published on the lives and doings of this family, one of the most remarkable families on record. This successful combination was composed of five persons--father, mother, a son, a daughter, and her husband. They were wise, thrifty, and industrious, pooled their interests, and accumulated a huge fortune which was handed down from one to the others as they passed on. Henrietta E. Garrett before her death inherited the whole of the $17,000,000 estate. There are no heirs except the descendants of Henrietta E. Garrett's grandfather, Peter Shaffer's brothers and sisters.

Below are the exact inscriptions in their order on the tombstones which spell propriety and taste: WALTER GARRETT, Born March 12, 1831, Died Feb. 17, 1895. HENRIETTA E. GARRETT, Born Nov. 25, 1849, Died Nov. 16, 1930. JOHN C. SCHAFFER, Born Sept. 8, 1840, Died Dec. 18, 1915. CHRISTOPHER SCHAFFER, Born August 5, 1808, Died Nov. 19, 1885. HENRIETTA C. SCHAFFER, Born Nov. 30, 1819, Died June 2, 1898.

Take Note: The Death Certificate of Henrietta E. Garrett states she was the daughter of Christian Schaeffer. The tombstone inscription reads: "Christopher Schaffer." The tombstone was placed during Mrs. Garrett's lifetime and under her direction, therefore, we shall assume name on tombstone is correct, and we will refer to Henrietta E. Garrett's father hereafter as "Christopher Schaffer."

TO THE DESCENDANTS OF VALENTINE AND CATHERINE (STAUB) SHAFFER:

Valentine Schaffer, carpenter by trade, was born in Bucks County, Pennsylvania, about 1757. He married Catherine Stob, a daughter of John Stob. While a young man, he migrated to Northampton County, Pennsylvania, where he settled down to hard work. To the union of Valentine Schaffer and Catherine Stob, twelve children were born (two died in childhood). Ten of these children lived to mature years and all married and most of them reared large families. On April 15, 1788, Valentine Schaffer purchased a tract of land from Jonathon Heyl containing 244 acres situated in Moore Township, Northampton County, Pennsylvania. On May 19, 1801, he sold this same tract of land to John Romely.

Valentine Schaffer left Northampton County in 1805. On April 29, 1805, he purchased a tract of land situated in Upper Mahanoy Township, Northumberland County, from Peter Metzgar and Barbara Metzgar, the deed being recorded April 18, 1808. Then later, on January 18, 1823, Peter and Mary Magdalena Schaffer deeded a tract of land in Augusta Township, Northumberland County, to him. Several real estate transactions of Valentine Schaffer are recorded in the Court House at Sunbury, county seat of Northumberland County. These records show that Valentine lived in Northumberland County from 1805 to 1837.

On September 29, 1837, Valentine Schaffer purchased a tract of land in Ringgold Township, Jefferson County, Pennsylvania, from his oldest son, John Schaffer. This farm in later years was known as the "Amos Schaffer farm." It was on this farm that Valentine Schaffer and his wife, Catherine, spent their declining years. Valentine Schaffer died there in the fall of 1853 at the ripe age of 97. He and his wife, Catherine Stob Schaffer, are both buried in St. James Cemetery near Ringgold, Jefferson County, Pennsylvania.

The writer, after spending several weeks investigating the records of this couple and in tracing their descendants, has discovered some impressive facts worthy of your attention relating to the unusual large number of Valentine Schaffer and Catherine Stob's descendants. We challenge any other family in Pennsylvania to show an equal number of descendants from a common ancestor of the Colonial period. They reared ten children who lived to marry. Every one of these children reared families. We venture to say their son Isaac, has enough descendants now living in Pennsylvania and other states that if all were brought together they would be ample in number to populate a rural county. The same can be said of their daughter, Elizabeth Schaffer Hinderliter, and also their son, Andrew. Any one of the other seven children, John, Peter, Catherine, Maria, Dorothea, Joseph or Polly, has enough living descendants if brought together to populate an ordinary township. Well, if you don't believe it, just make a list of the relatives in your own branch of this family from the youngest back to your ancestor named in the list below. We can all boast that we came from a lineage of one of the most prolific clans to be found in any state in the Union.

This does not mean that all the descendants of Peter Schaffer's brothers and sisters (if we are successful) would participate in the distribution of the Henrietta E. Garrett estate, for most of these descendants' parents are living and in many cases the grandparents are living, also some of the great-grandparents. In cases where the parents, grandparents and great-grandparents are all dead their descendants would participate in the distribution in accordance with their genealogical classification as imposed by the intestate laws of the state.

There has been a great deal of speculation on the subject of first cousins or first cousins once removed; that only those coming within that realm could participate in the Henrietta E. Garrett fortune. Such reasoning is false for such a law applies only in case of collateral heirs. In the case of Henrietta E. Garrett there are no collateral heirs since she did not have any immediate relatives living at the time of her death. The nearest kin of her own blood are the descendants of her grandfather, Peter Schaffer's brothers and sisters who become the direct heirs under the circumstances unless Peter Schaffer's own children's descendants from his second marriage come in ahead of his brothers and sisters. This will be a matter for the Orphans' Court to determine.

To the union of Valentine and Catherine Stob the following children were born: (All born on a farm near Nazareth, Northampton County, Pennsylvania, except Polly, their "baby," born in Upper Mahanoy Township, Northumberland County, Pennsylvania.)

Year of Birth

(Estimated)

- 1782 John Shaffer (married to Elizabeth Geist).
- 1784 Peter Shaffer (married to Mary Magdalena Brown February 15, 1818).
- 1787 Cathrin Shaffer (married to Isaac Knarr first, then to Jacob Mowery).
- 1791 Maria Shaffer (married to John Beisel).
- 1794 Doratha Shaffer (married to Henry Sherry).
- 1797 Isaac Shaffer (married to Christena Geist).
- 1800 Elizabeth Shaffer (married to Daniel Hinderliter).
- 1802 Andrew Shaffer (married to Christena Esterly).
- 1804 Joseph Shaffer (married to Hannah Miller).
- 1806 Polly Shaffer (married to Michael Shaffer).

Robert Wilson Shaffer (born June 19, 1843, died Sept. 20, 1930), son of Andrew Shaffer (born Sept. 29, 1802, died January 12, 1891), left the writer the above list written, in chronological order, perhaps 35 or 40 years before his death in his own hand writing.

We have actual records to show the dates of birth of Elizabeth, Andrew, Joseph and Polly to be as above stated. The others from John, born 1782, to Isaac, born 1797, are estimated. As two other children were born during this period and died in childhood we calculated a longer period between the births of the first six on the list.

We quote the will of Valentine Shaffer to prove the authenticity of the above list of his children. (Copy from Will Book in Jefferson County Court House.)
 THE LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF VALENTINE SHAFER - Last will and testament in the name of God Amen. I, Valentine Shafer, hope to die and to be with Christ. My desire is that my children may bury my body in an honorable and Christian manner in the earth, and that they may sell and turn into money my property which I shall leave behind in peace. And my piece of land containing fifty acres my Polly shall have for two hundred and fifteen dollars if she wants it and is able to pay for. And further, all shall be calculated together and equally divided to one as much as to the other. And John shall have his share and Catherine shall have her share and her share shall be put out on interest until after her death and then it shall be equally divided amongst her children to those that she got with Mowery and to those which she got with Isaac Knarr. Doratha shall have her share. Peter shall have his share, if there is anything yet to come to him. Isaac shall have his share. Elizabeth shall have her share. Andrew shall have his share. Joseph shall have his share. Polly shall have her share. Maria shall have her share. My desire is that my children may make all things right among themselves and in such a manner as is right before God and the world and think that they cannot prosper if they don't act justly. This is your father's will and John Shoffner and John Shafer shall be my executors.

In order to establish genealogic relationship with Henrietta E. Garrett we have only one avenue by which to reach her and that is via Peter Schaffer (born 1784), father of Christopher Schaffer (born 8-5-1808). Henrietta E. Schaffer Garrett was born in the eastern part of Pennsylvania in the vicinity of Philadelphia, Nov. 25, 1849. She was the daughter of Christopher Schaffer and Henrietta C. Kretchman. Her grandmother's name (Peter Shaffer's first wife) has not yet been revealed to us. We have often wondered why the names and other information concerning Christopher Schaffer's parents are being withheld by the Administrators.

REPORT OF OUR SECOND TRIP - Monday, April 28, Tuesday, April 29, and Wednesday, April 30, 1935.

Our time during these three days in Northumberland County was devoted to looking up the descendants of Catherine Schaffer (first married to Isaac Knarr, then to Jacob Mowery) and the descendants of Maria Schaffer (married to John Beisel) as we have been unable to contact these descendants. We failed to find even a trace of them on our trip to Northampton County last March so we decided to try in Northumberland County.

We did, to our great surprise, find on our recent trip descendants of Peter Schaffer and his second wife, Mary Magdalena Brown. We never heard our grandfather speak about this family but he often told us about Peter's son, Christopher, to his first marriage living in Philadelphia and that Christopher's children were reputed millionaires and were manufacturers of snuff. Of course, my grandfather, Andrew Shaffer, married in 1822 and moved to New York State and never returned to Northumberland County although he returned to Pennsylvania. At the time he left none of Peter's children to his second wife were yet born. It is obvious to us now why grandfather spoke only of Peter's son, Christopher, living in Philadelphia. Peter Schaffer married his second wife, Mary Magdalena Brown February 15, 1818, and their first child that lived, Susanna, was born Apr. 13, 1824.

Catherine Schaffer (married to Isaac Knarr first, then to Jacob Mowery.)

For three days we scoured Northumberland County in search of the descendants of Catherine Schaffer and failed to find even a trace of any of them. Northumberland County is full of Mowerys but none of the many we interviewed fit in her lineage. We were unable to find any Knarrs to interview. Should any one reading this have any knowledge of any Mowery or Knarr that belongs to our lineage it will be appreciated if you will write to the undersigned.

Maria Schaffer (married to John Beisel.)

We called on many Beisels in Northumberland County but found none who could go back further than their grandfather, but we received a letter since returning home, dated May 6, 1935, signed by John Fitzpatrick and William J. Neihart of Treverton, Northumberland County, Pa. (heirs of the late Charles Beisel), stating that they have the true data of John Beisel (born 6-17-1791, died 1851) and his wife Maria Schaffer who were the sponsors of the children of Daniel Hinderliter and his wife, Elizabeth Schaffer. This information has an authentic ring and we would suggest that every Beisel in the Shamokin district or elsewhere meet with John Fitzpatrick and Wm. J. Neihart at Treverton and compile a complete family tree of all the descendants of John Beisel and Maria Schaffer. When we present our claim to the Orphans' Court in Philadelphia the name of every one to share as beneficiary in the Estate of Henrietta E. Garrett must be presented to the Court. Please furnish the undersigned with these names. Do not leave anyone out or the Court may hold up payment to all until the lists of heirs are correct, full and complete and classified in order of lineage.

Virginia

Virginia became a royal colony in 1624. From then until 1776, when it announced its independence, it was in almost constant trouble with the Crown or its representatives. By 1700 there were more than 80,000 persons living in the Tidewater region of Virginia; 20,000 more had come by 1717. During the next 37 years, the population increased by almost 200%, reaching 284,000 by 1754. By 1800, it had upwards of 90 counties and a population of nearly a million.

Until 1786, the Episcopal Church was the state church in Virginia. All children, regardless of religious affiliation, were required to be baptized by the ministers of that church. Dates of their baptism, together with their names, dates of birth, and names of their parents were recorded in the parish registers. The same information was taken of all marriages and burials. All of these church records are preserved, some are printed. They are available in the Virginia State Library in Richmond.

The Quit Rent list is used as a Census Report or Schedule. In 1704, all Virginia landowners, except those in Lancaster, Northumberland, Westmoreland, Richmond and Stafford Counties, had to pay the King a Quit Rent of one shilling for each 50 acres bought. In the 1790 to 1860 Federal Census schedules for Virginia will be found 50 counties now in West Virginia. These counties withdrew from Virginia in 1861 and in 1863 became our 35th state.

Most cities in Virginia are independent of the counties within which they lie, so that the term "local registrar" is used to mean a registrar for any county or independent city.

Virginia was relatively early in requiring statewide registration of births, deaths, and marriages, passing a vital records act in 1853. These records through 1896 are accessible on microfilm for genealogical research at the State Archives, Virginia State Library, Richmond, 23219. The microfilm does not circulate and copies may not be obtained from it. All copies, even for the earliest periods, must be obtained from the Bureau of Vital Statistics, 109 Governor St., Richmond 23219. The fee is $3 per record, whether or not found. Copies are restricted in the same manner as shown below for the later records. The State Archives in the Virginia State Library also has microfilm for marriages through 1935. The same restrictions on copies apply as is the case for birth and death records. There are 5-year cumulative indexes available to the researcher for births and marriages, but deaths are unindexed, so far.

During the period from 1896 until 1912 no statewide birth and death records were kept in Virginia, so that such records for this period are found only at the local level. Beginning with 1912, birth and death records are closed and are kept at the Bureau of Vital Statistics in Richmond as well as, in condensed form only, at the local level. Statewide divorce records are also at the Bureau for 1918-present. No statewide index to these records exists before 1960, so that a request for a copy of an earlier divorce must contain the county and year of divorce.

The Bureau of Vital Statistics has computerized birth records from 1960 to the present and is now planning to computerize birth records for 1912-1930, this being the time bracket in which most pending retirees in the 1980's will have been born. Very detailed medical and personal data are required on the Virginia birth registration forms, and all of it is computerized.

Genealogists are not currently permitted to have access to the post-1911 birth and death records under the Federal Model Law, Research Clause. When access is granted, the search is made by the Registrar or his agent and a copy provided for $3 per record. The fee is charged whether the record is found or not. There are no provisions for opening records as they reach a given age. Please note, however, that the earliest records may, in fact, be searched.

A peculiar feature of Virginia local government, of which nonresidents are seldom aware, is the administrative independence of the Commonwealth's incorporated cities. In Virginia, such urban areas share little administrative authority with the county or counties of which they are geographically a part. Thus, a city such as Charlottesville keeps separate records from the County of Albemarle in which it is located. If an ancestor lived in Charlottesville prior to its administrative independence, records concerning him/her will be found among the Albemarle County records, but afterwards, among the Charlottesville City records. Researchers working in Virginia have to remain alert to the formation of new and independent cities as well as to new counties. Once created, independent cities tend to grow, slowly taking away more and more surrounding county property, so that on occasion successful research can depend on knowing exactly where the boundaries of a city were at any given time.

There is finally the question of exactly where certain county and independent city records are to be found. In some instances, an independent city may also be the county seat and thus the location of both the City Hall and the County Court House.

The following is a list of the incorporated, independent cities of Virginia along with the names of the county or counties in which their territory lies. The first date given below the name of the city is the date of its founding as a town; the second, the date of its incorporation as a town, and the third is the date of its incorporation as a city. This third date is the one following which cities will usually be found keeping independent records. Some exceptions to this have been noted. Virginia presently has 34 incorporated, independent cities. Half of these have been incorporated since 1900 and they are listed here without further dates or comments since it is not often that they would figure among the problems of the average researcher. They are: Chesapeake, Clifton Forge, Colonial Heights, Covington, Fairfax, Falls Church, Franklin, Galax, Hampton, Harrisonburg, Hopewell, Martinsville, Norton, South Boston, Suffolk, Virginia Beach and Waynesboro. The remaining 17 cities are:

Alexandria Fairfax/Arlington Cos. 1749 - 1779 - 1852	Fredericksburg Spottsylvania Co. 1728 - 1782 - 1879	Portsmouth Norfolk Co. (extinct) 1752 - 1836 - 1858

Due to rising costs, the NVG&B Board of Directors has deemed it necessary to change our Quarterly to a bi-annual publication, being published in March and September of each year. Deadlines for queries, articles, pedigree charts, memorials, advertisements, etc. will be February 1 and August 1. Each issue will contain 50-60 pages.

Our Society has lost a loyal and supportive member. Hyral Quinlan was a charter member, served on our second Board of Directors and showed her confidence in the future of the Society by becoming our first Life Member. Her generous contribution last year, and again this year, to the Quarterly and to the Library (being a staunch advocate of both), has enhanced our Society and enriched our genealogical research. Hyral was a gem of a person, liked by all who met her. She will be sorely missed by her many friends, but never forgotten.
